RE: Request for Waiver

To Whom It May Concern

I am in receipt of your November 2, 2020 correspondence and thank you for the same. Pursuant thereto please consider this to be my Request for Waiver of the penalties associated with the late filing of the Form 90-P, Campaign Finance Disclosure Report. This filing was overlooked by my campaign and I did not receive notice of any delinquent filings until December 7, 2020. The Form 90-P was filed on December 9, 2020.

I do not dispute that the filing was untimely filed, however, this is my campaign's first missed or delinquent filing. Further, I was unaware of any filings due for unopposed candidates. Finally, part of the reason of the late receipt of the notice of late fees was due to several members of my campaign, family and staff, including my secretary, my minute clerk and my family were under quarantine at different times this year. My campaign mailing address is changing to my home to ensure future timely receipt of important documents.

Please consider these mitigating factors in your decision.

Best
